

POLLINATOR FORUM

Saturday, April 5th, 11:30 am -1 pm
at Oxford Senior Center 323 Main Street, Oxford

PETROLEUM to POLLINATORS Project

Hear about Oxford's new community park ~ give your feedback on design options.

POLLINATOR STATIONS

Visit with team members at stations set up around the meeting room to learn about the many initiatives and events being planned.
Handouts full of information about pollinators and native plants will be available as well as ideas you can implement in your own yards to help the bees and butterflies!

More Activities

Meet local nursery owners and learn about their native plant stock

Kids Activities ~ Plant seeds to bring home

How to raise monarch butterflies

Native seed packets give-away

Seed Library Display

and more!

For more information, call 508-987-6044

This Forum is being hosted by the Oxford Conservation Commission and Pollinator Campaign Partners